THE DEMANDS OF RUSSIA

FORMALLY PRESENTED AT YIDLIZ PALACE.

Naval Demonstration in Turkish Waters May Encourage Macedonians—Russia's Action May be Followed by Others.

Constantinople, Aug. 19.—The Russian demands on Turkey growing out of the recent murder of the Russian consul were formally presented at the Yidliz palace yesterday.

Notwithstanding the warning which Russia addressed to the Bulgarian government it is generally believed here the Russian naval demonstration in Turkish waters will dangerously encourage Macedonians, who will interpret Russia's action as being the first step toward intervention in their behalf. The insubordination of Turkish troops is regarded as being one of the greatest dangers of the present Balkan crisis. Lack of discipline among soldiers is marked. It is found necessary to punish them in order to prevent a conflict between soldiers and officers.

London, Aug. 19.—A Vienna dispatch says Bulgaria has ordered 15,000 cartridges from a Vienna firm for prompt delivery.

REPORTS OF FIGHTING.

Salonica, Aug. 19.—A revolutionary band engaged a force of Turkish troops Monday at Kalliar. Thirty revolutionists were killed, troops pursuing the remainder. A message from the metropolitan of Salonica further confirms reports Turkish troops on entering Krashevo terribly maltreated the inhabitants. About one hundred and fifty Greeks, including eighty children, were marched as prisoners to Monastir. Five of them died on the way. Further details of fighting at Krashevo show that insurgents retired to a point in the vicinity of the town after losing sixty men killed and twelve wounded. The Turkish loss was 250 men killed and wounded. Seventy insurgents near Kote fought a detachment of Turks all day. Nine insurgents were killed. Turkish losses are not known. The following day Haidi Razouks entered the village and slaughtered all the inhabitants.

MAY BE JOINT ACTION.

Paris, Aug. 19.—It was learned in official quarters to day the action of Russia in ordering a naval squadron to Turkish waters may be speedily followed by an important joint naval action on the part of the powers. Communications are being exchanged between powers relative to a joint naval demonstration before Salonica. It is probable a fleet of all European powers having Turkish interests, except possibly Germany, which throughout has not favored taking energetic steps against Turkey, will take part in the demonstration. In the meantime the Russian squadron will not proceed to Constantinople as has been reported, but will rendezvous at the small port of Adrianople above the entrance of the Bosphorus. At present the squadron has no orders to assume an aggressive course. Its action will depend on Turkey's fulfillment of terms of Russia's final demands.

MARRIED HIS NURSE.

Asheville, S. C., Aug. 19.—Otis Mills, oldest son of the late Col. Frank Mills, of Philadelphia, was married in Knoxville yesterday to Miss Gertrude Jones, a trained nurse of Asheville. The wedding brings to a happy conclusion a series of incidents more than ordinarily romantic. Mills was married ten years ago to Miss Mary Conolly, prominent in the society of the south. In 1899 Mrs. Mills, who has one child, obtained a divorce on abandonment. Mills then left Asheville, living in Philadelphia until a few months ago, when he came back here. He was taken with typhoid fever and for three months his life was despaired of. Miss Jones, by her good nursing, saved his life and a attachment sprung up which culminated in yesterday's ceremony. Mills is about 40 and is wealthy, receiving $2,000 from his father.

DEFENDS LYNCHINGS.

Linton, Ky., Aug. 19.—A novel debate is to take place at Linton Monday night next under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, when Rev. C. A. Earl, pastor of the Baptist church, will take the affirmative side of the question, "Is Lynching in Some Cases Justifiable."

Rev. Earl takes the ground that while lynching may not be per se justifiable, there is no question that the number of lynchings in the south have done much to prevent the spread of certain horrible crimes. The negro, he says, has to be kept overawed and taught a quick lesson. The power of example is strong and when a negro is lynched it is bound to have a salutary effect on others. The Bible teaches quick punishment. If a man guilty of one of these horrible crimes was promptly tried and hanged within a week after it had been committed it would do away with half of the lynch law.

MILWAUKEE WANTS CONVENTION.

Milwaukee, Aug. 19.—The Democratic committee to night extended a formal invitation to the Democratic national committee to hold the national convention in Milwaukee next year.

YACHT RACE TO DAY

Reliance and Shamrock III Battle for Supremacy—Betting Favors American Boat.

New York, Aug. 19.—Over the ocean race course outside of Sandy Hook Shamrock III will to morrow try conclusions with the new defender, Reliance. Again this year as in the two preceding years the course of the government will police the course with revenue cutters and most stringent rules have been laid down to prevent interference by the excursion fleet. Both yachts were given a final trial Wednesday. Despite the big time allowance which the defender must concede the challenger friends of the Reliance are extremely confident Sir Thomas is again doomed to defeat and confidence is reflected in betting, where odds are 2 to 1 on the Reliance. Friends of the British boat, on the other hand, have the greatest faith in Shamrock III's ability to lift the cup.

According to rules the first race will be fifteen nautical miles to windward or leeward and return, depending upon the wind's direction. After that each alternate race will be over a triangular course ten miles to leeward. The next race is billed Saturday and the third Tuesday, and thereafter every other day until the series is completed. According to the rules if the course is not covered within the time allowance, five and a half hours, it is no race. The winner must capture three of the five races.

Weather predictions for to morrow are not alluring, the forecaster promising a breeze of three to nine knots. Seven knots is necessary to carry the boats over the course in the allotted time. The Reliance and Shamrock III were out to day for an hour on final trial spins. Except when passing, going in opposite directions, the yachts were never nearer each other than three miles, so there was not an opportunity to compare them. The remainder of the day was devoted by crews of both boats to making final preparations for the race. To night Lipton declared himself more confident than ever of winning the cup. A flood of letters, cablegrams and telegrams reached the Erin to day from all parts of the world, bringing wishes for success of Shamrock III.

It was announced to night C. D. Mower, official measurer, remeasured Shamrock III to day and that as a consequence the challenger was given an additional allowance of twelve seconds, making the total time allowance 1 minute and 57 seconds, against previous 1 minute and 45 seconds. A mistake had been made in measuring the length of the topmast, the new measurement being in length of Shamrock III, 104.7, equal to time allowance of twelve seconds.

SENATOR DEBOE TESTIFIES.

United States Senator Deboe took the witness stand for the defense in the Caleb Powers case this afternoon. He denied all statements made by Youtsey connecting him in any way with any part in the assassination of Goebel. He said he attended a meeting of Republicans at Louisville to discuss the Taylor-Goebel contest; that he attended no meetings at Frankfort; that the day before the shooting he left for Washington to talk with President McKinley about the Kentucky situation. He had already asked the president and other prominent men of both parties at Washington, he said, to exert moral influence with Kentucky Democrats to abandon the contest. Later he asked the president to send federal troops to Kentucky, Taylor having urged it in a telegram after the killing of Goebel.

THE PACING RECORD BROKEN

DAN PATCH GOES A MILE IN FAST TIME OF 1:59

Former Record was 1:59.4; Held by Star Pointer—Had Heavy Wind and Slow Track to Contend With—Result of Races.

New York, Aug. 19.—Dan Patch broke the world's record to day for pacers, going a mile in 1:59. The former record was 1:59.4, held by Star Pointer. It was a magnificent performance and seemed impossible, heavy wind and slow track considered. After a few preliminary warm-ups Dan Patch was given the word and driven by McHenry and accompanied by two running mates, with a swift, frictionally stride he shot from the wire and seemed determined to push his nose into the flying sulky in front of him which the thoroughbred was steadily pulling ahead. On swept the famous pacer to the quarter in :29, and when the half mile pole was flashed past in :58.4 a great volume of cheers went from the vast crowd. Then came the difficult top turn and the slowest quarter of the mile ensued, the three-quarters being done in 1:29.4. The stretch swift and steady as a locomotive he came and as he shot under the wire watches stopped at 1:59. The new champion was not at all distressed and looked as if he will be able before the season is over to beat his own record. The card to day was good throughout.

To day the notice of his death came with the statement that he had willed his entire estate to her, having no heirs.

BROKEN OUT AFRESH

Controversy in the Government Printing Office Renewed—Charges Preferred.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The controversy between the bookbinders' union and William A. Miller, assistant foreman in the government printing office, has broken out afresh. At the close of the day's work Monday Public Printer Palmer handed to Miller a set of charges which had been prepared by the union. Miller sent them back to the public printer yesterday with the statement they were made by irresponsible parties, were based on hearsay and were too absurd to seriously consider. Officials of the government printing office are very loath to discuss the matter, but it was learned the charges were mainly directed against Miller's personal character and related to acts said to have been committed as far back as twenty-five years ago.

LAWN TENNIS

Championship Won for Second Time by the Dohertys.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 19.—The American lawn tennis championship in doubles was won to day for the second time by R. F. and H. L. Doherty, the famous British team, who defeated Kreigh Collins and L. Waldner, American champions, in straight sets, 7-5, 6-3, 6-3. Both pairs showed wonderful improvement over a year previous form and while the Americans were stronger and more steady and accurate than last season the Englishmen were able not only to show equal to but to surpass their opponents.

Next to doubles in importance was the match in singles between R. F. Doherty and Kreigh Collins, which Doherty won, taking the first, third and fourth sets, 6-2, 6-4, 6-3. Collins won second set, 6-2.

HILL MAKES AN ADDRESS

PAYS ATTENTION TO VARIETY OF SUBJECTS

Talks of Mob Law and Spectacular People in Public Life—Doubts Present Prosperity of the Country.

Olcott Beach, N. Y., Aug. 19.—David B. Hill was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Niagara County Pioneers' association to day. Attorney General Cuenen presided and made a brief speech.

Hill in opening discussed "Mob Law Versus Due Process of Law." He held that the excuse usually offered for mob violence is a reflection on the community itself and the remedy lies, not in the people themselves overthrowing the law, but in the people upholding and enforcing the law. Hill, taking up another subject, frowned upon what he termed spectacularism. "Spectacular visits," he said, "usually affect superiority over other people. In the matter of patriotism they desire to be regarded as the only true patriots. They abhor silence and obscurity. They assert the commonest kind of self-evident propositions which have become moss-covered from age with emphasis, as though they were oracles and as though their platitudes were wholly original. They have their press agents who unsolicited supply the newspapers gratuitously with details of whatever they do each morning, noon and night as though the world was holding its breath for fear something would escape it pertaining to themselves. If they happen to hold public office they are delighted to see their smallest public act paraded, magnified and applauded. They are sure there are never before such public officials as themselves—so earnest, so honest, so self-sacrificing. They meddle with everything, whether within or without their official jurisdiction, and usually muddle everything with which they have anything to do. The hope of the country lies in the great mass of cool, deliberate and conservative citizens who pursue their avocations and perform their duties unostentatiously and entertain sincere conviction on their lives work. They neither delight in war, in contention, nor in unnecessary strife. They carry no chip upon their shoulders, always looking for trouble. Their ways are ways of pleasantness and their paths are peace and they believe that righteousness more than triumphs of war exalt a nation."

He next took up the question of prosperity and declared there were grave reasons to doubt the correctness of the claim the country is enjoying prosperity. He said the future is largely mortgages; that there is no adherence to the doctrine of paying as you go. "When prices of necessities are unreasonably advanced so that it practically costs a man all that he earns to live comfortably there is no opportunity afforded for accumulation of a fair competence. Normal conditions are better for people as a whole rather than those flourishing times soon followed by periods of business reverses."

Hill next criticized the proposed new law for financial relief. He called attention to the demand following discontinuance of the purchase of silver for a single gold standard measure, which, he said, was duly enacted and the financial millennium predicted. "Now when a falling market is depreciating values and wrecking fortunes," he continued, "we are told we must immediately have additional financial legislation providing for what the next speaker of the house has recently described or dubbed 'rubber currency.' This is in effect loaning the surplus of the treasury to national banks upon 'approved securities.' He thought the financial situation desperate when those relievers are expected rather than those who accumulate the surplus, and which accumulation has largely caused the present congestion of the money market."

FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

Minneapolis, Aug. 19.—Delegates from twenty-three states were present to day at the opening session of the convention of the National Funeral Directors' association. Acting Mayor Jones delivered an address of welcome and F. W. Alexander, of Conrod, Iowa, responded.

The body was packed in a light coffee can and wrapped in blood-soaked folds of a woman's dress. The only mark on the body was a bullet hole in the breast. The baggage master, becoming suspicious, opened the can and discovered the body. A man and woman who deposited the can in the car were arrested at Dravosburg. They claim the boy was their son and that he accidentally shot himself.

Clever Criminal Changed Places with his Captor and Made Escape.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 9.—Albert Ecklund, alias George Johnson, who was captured at Rawlins and being taken back to Chicago to answer the charge of grand larceny, effected a remarkable escape from Detective Marsden. To make sure of his man, Marsden shackled Ecklund to a seat. While Marsden was asleep Ecklund took the keys to the shackles from the detective's pocket, released himself and then shackled the officer to a steam pipe. Having relieved the officer of his weapon and other property, Ecklund left the train at Laramie. Marsden did not awake until he had reached Cheyenne, when he called for assistance. As Marsden had absolutely nothing on his person to prove he was not the prisoner the trainmen would not release him. Authorities telegraphed to Chicago for instructions and when the train reached Sydney Marsden was released.

CANAL TREATY TALK.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Unofficial, but what is considered entirely reliable information, has been received by Dr. Herran, Colombian charge of affairs here, indicating the intention of the Colombian senate to resume consideration of a canal treaty in place of the one recently disapproved. This shows a decided change and leads Herran to hope the measure to be passed will form the basis for ratification of a canal treaty. A joint committee of both houses of the Colombian congress was appointed to prepare a measure outlining the terms of a treaty to be drawn and giving the president of Colombia all power to ratify it. The question of sovereignty having been the predominant one in Colombian debates the presumption is that whatever measure is agreed on as a basis for a treaty would be along lines that will not offend Colombian sensitiveness in this regard.

OLD SOLDIERS PARADE AGAIN

MARCH IN THE STREETS OF SAN FRANCISCO.

With Ranks Thinned, But Plenty of Enthusiasm They Pass in Review—Illinois Made a Good Showing.

San Francisco, Aug. 19.—The parade to day of veterans of the G. A. R. in this city will be long remembered by thousands of people who packed the streets along the line of march. It was devoid of all the pomp and panoply of the warlike host which marched in all pride of strength and youth in yesterday's parade. There was something pathetic in the thinned out ranks of veterans who marched to day which touched the hearts of all who saw them. Bowled with the weight of years, worn out and weary, but animated by the fires of unquenching spirit, this remnant of the mighty host which had carved out victory for the republic on the hardest fought battlefield the world has ever known, marched proudly along, the last of the unconquered band of heroes. With battleflags waving above swaying ranks, flags which bore the marks of shot and shell in many a fierce fray, with militia precision, these old soldiers, headed by a detachment from Illinois, commanded by Benson Wood, Grand Army detachments swung into their appointed positions with the main column, which started at 10 o'clock.

Mounted staff department commanders and all mounted escorts were formed into platoons of eight files front, the distance being regulated at four paces. This formation was well maintained all through the parade and the same can be said of different posts, which were paraded some sixteen paces apart with double distance between files. Throughout the parade was strictly military, no women, children nor grotesque costumes being permitted in the column. Carriages were also prohibited and a few which appeared were occupied by disabled veterans driven in all cases to the left of the column of their respective departments. Hearty greetings were extended to the old boys along the entire line of march, each department being cheered to the echo as it filed past.

The reviewing stand was on Yonkers avenue and there departments marched past in perfect alignment after a long, tiresome march for many of the old veterans.

James D. Walker has been re-elected commander of the National Association of ex-Prisoners of War. John S. Ferguson, of Oskuk, Iowa, was elected chaplain. Borden's Sharpshooters elected officers headed by S. C. James, of Centerville, Iowa, as president.

One thousand men marched under the yellow banner of Illinois. At the head marched Col. Thomas G. Lawler, past commander-in-chief of the Grand Army. Badger state posts fell in after Illinois. There were 300 in the line, led by Gen. Arthur MacArthur, in civilian clothes, keeping company with Gen. Amos Cobb, ex-chief justice of the supreme bench of Nebraska, and General Lyon, chief justice of the supreme court of Wisconsin. At the very head was Gen. J. P. Rundell, commander of the department, and his chief of staff, Captain Enry, of Eau Claire. It is estimated 10,000 men were in line.

The Illinois delegation attracted the most attention and was probably the largest of any from the east. Wisconsin and Iowa were well represented. An Alaskan delegate carried an immense pair of horns and a couple of badgers were borne by Wisconsin men.

This afternoon was devoted to social gatherings. The Women's Relief corps gave a reception to Commander-in-Chief Stewart to night and veterans of the Spanish war honored General Miles in a similar manner.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Of Methodist Ministers to Begin at Quincy Sept. 16.

This will be the eightieth annual conference of the Illinois district and is a little out of the ordinary in that there will be a lay electoral conference in connection with it. A delegate to this conference will be elected from each of the 255 pastoral charges in the conference and this delegate may be either man or woman. They will hold their session on Friday, or two days after the ministerial conference has begun, and will elect eight delegates to the general conference of the Methodist church, which is to be held next May at Los Angeles, Calif. The ministers will also elect eight delegates from their body to the general conference.

The exact program for the conference has not yet been made out and it may be several weeks before it is completed. The 300 members of this body will be entertained by Rev. Parker Shields and his congregation, that of the Vermont street church of Quincy.

There is a great deal of routine business to be transacted by the conference. The usual reports from the presiding elders of the nine districts of the Illinois conference are to be acted upon, besides the reports from the pastors of the conference, of whom there are nearly 300.

It is a rule that no one can be presiding elder in charge of the same district for more than one term, lasting six years, and consequently it will be necessary to elect three new elders this year. The terms of office of Revs. Robert Stevens of the Danville district, Dr. Whitlock of the Mattoon district and W. F. Short of the West Jacksonville district expire at this conference, time and their successors will be selected from among the ministers of the conference.

The Illinois conference embraces that portion of Illinois running clear across the state and from seventy-five to a hundred miles south from Bloomington, its most northern point. It is one of the largest conferences in the Methodist church and contains 255 pastoral charges, with a church membership of 6,000.

RED MEN.

There will be a special meeting at the wigwam of Delaware Tribe No. 8, on Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Important business.

ROOT MAY INTERDICT BRIDGE.

Peoria, Aug. 19.—A hitch in the plans of the city of Pekin for the construction of a new wagon bridge across the river connecting Tazewell and Peoria counties at that point has taken place. Some time ago the steamboat people who ply the river south of this city explained to the war department that the piers of the Pekin wagon bridge were too close to the channel, making steamboating a very difficult matter.

To day Major Counselman, of Pekin, received a letter from Secretary Root asking for information and at the same time ordering the city to do nothing toward the construction of the new bridge until further orders. The contract is about to be let and it was expected to commence work within the next two or three weeks.

Good returning leaving destination not later than Sept. 1, 1903.

TEST OF HIGH SPEED SOON TO BE MADE.

One hundred miles an hour is the speed which the Aurora, Elgin & Chicago Electric Railroad company expects to make this fall in a test run to be made with a specially geared motor car. The test is expected to establish a new world's motor record for a railroad in practical operation. To achieve the speed of 100 miles an hour a motor car equipped with a special gear will have to be manufactured. The construction of this car is now under way and will be completed at an early date. In appearance the car will be no different from the cars now run over the line. In asking for permission to make a speed test over the Aurora, Elgin & Chicago line the General Electric company had in view a demonstration of the capabilities of the electric car more than an attempt to establish a new running schedule for the line. The success of the test, however, is counted upon to exert strong bearing upon the management of suburban electric roads in the future.

During the months of July and August the Gas company will deliver within the city limits coke at the following prices: Unseasoned coke 13c per bushel; crushed coke 12c per bushel. This is the best fuel on earth for furnaces and home burners and also for stoves. Send in your orders early.

Pigs and poultry are profitable. Salt should be always accessible.

High priced land demands first class farming.

Have you harnessed the wind on your farm?

Keep the hens tame and the young chicks will thrive better.

Garden soil is not likely to be embarrassed by its richness.

There is profit in remembering what you didn't do right last year.

The gardener who grows cabbage ought to get ahead in the world.

With all stock working for early maturity is the most profitable plan.

Don't entertain a horror for dairy literature, convention, institute, etc.

A man who thinks he has learned it all has probably learned all he can.

The pig is the one creature that is applauded for "making a hog of himself."

The farmer who waits for something to turnip will never earn his celery.

Pigs dress away only 15 to 20 percent while beef dresses away 40 to 50 percent.

As farmer elevators multiply the opportunities for making huge fortunes in wheat do not.

Whitewash the stable once or twice a year. Use land plaster in the manure gutters daily.

Keep stock in different pastures and rotate them from one to another after a little recuperation.

If the neighbors confer the title of "good farmer" on you, you may be sure that you are one.

Put the whitewash on thick. It will then fill in the crevices and destroy many germs and much vermin.

The best opening for a young man at the present time is a western farm, and if he's country raised all the better.

Horses teeth should be examined at least once a year. It often prevents sore mouth and helps mastication.

Concentration of wealth is yet seen on too many farms. The wealth of field's fertility concentrated in manure burdened barnyards.

The average gross returns from all cultivated lands in the country is less than $10.50 per acre, and for cereals crops only $8.02 per acre.

Don't be one of those fellows who lets the good housewife take care of the cows and do the milking and then boast on what a "good dairyman I am."

Ground your wire fences so they cannot electrocute the stock if lightning strikes. Wire connection with moist earth or the subsoil is enough.

Probably the highest prices ever paid for coach horses in this country was at an auction sale in New York, recently when 34 head brought $24,000. One pair sold for $4,750.

Don't let drudgery drive the boys away from the farm. Harness the wind and make it turn the grindstone.

Saw the wood, shell the corn and cut the fodder. Cheap power.

Twenty-one of the best hens in this country have sailed from San Francisco to engage in an egg-laying contest with Australian hens, which will continue for one year. Their expense were paid by the Australian government, which will buy the six best at $25 a piece. The others will be sold there at public auction.

We have both read and heard of the merits of alfalfa as a feed for the cow, the hog and every other farm animal. Just now the cry is "alfalfa for the hen."

It is said to be a great egg and flesh producer.

If every farmer in the country who owns cows would plant from two to five acres of good fodder corn, it would be worth millions of dollars to them, in keeping up the milk supply throughout the season of dry grass.

Ten years ago prevailing drought was accounted for by the drainage and scarcity of timber. Eastern states are still heavily timbered in spots, and at present there is a great dearth of moisture, while on the old time American desert forests have fallen on a treeless country. Rules that work both ways all the time are not numerous.

The delegation of German farmers and experts who are now in this country studying our farming methods will see something to astonish them when they reach the great ranches of the west. There they will find sixty-horse power traction engines, which pull simultaneously sixteen 14-inch plows, which plow twenty feet. The outfit will plow from forty to sixty acres per day, or will plow, drill and harrow, all at one time, with properly arranged tools, from thirty-five to fifty acres per day.

Mrs. Louis Allen, of South Fork, Mo., has prevented attack by snakes during the summer by using Chamberlain's Snake Remedy. She says that she has used it on all her snakes and they are all dead.

MURDERER ARRESTED

Dodge, charged with Wanted in Virginia, charged for Killing Sister-in-Law, Taken in Kentucky.

Danville, Aug. 18.—Sheriff Hardy H. Whitlock this afternoon received a telegram from Nortonville, Ky., stating that Dodge Carrington, wanted here for the murder of his sister-in-law, Mrs. George Carrington, on the night of Aug. 5, is under arrest there and requesting that an officer be sent for him at once. The sheriff took immediate steps to secure a requisition and will probably start for Kentucky after the murderer to-morrow.

George Carrington, husband of the murdered woman, is already in jail awaiting trial for complicity in the affair. The people in the vicinity of Grape Creek, where the Carringtons lived, are highly incensed over the murder.

Previous to the arrest of Dodge Carrington Governor Yates had offered a reward for his capture.

STORIES OF PHIL MAY.

Sketches of the artist's experiences while hunting for "types."

In his later and more affluent days the late Phil May, the English caricaturist, employed a man for the special purpose of luring models to his studio. These models often cost him several pounds a day, says the New York Herald. They would not always pose satisfactorily. Once in his studio the girl would become ridiculously shy, giggling all the time he was at work. In the same way the male models were likely to drop at their assurance on the doorstep and become lifeless and vacuous when they posed.

"The other day," the artist told a friend, "I got two new girls, to whom I was sitting a strange and fearful experience. As usual, they giggled the whole time I was sketching them, but I only kept them an hour and then dismissed with a shilling apiece. The news of this evidently got about, and the next morning a fearfully gross old woman knocked at my door with the inquiry, 'Do you want any models?'"

As he was always looking out for "types," so he was always on the qui vive for jokes. Everything was great that came to his mind. When his second imagination ran temporarily dry, when accident failed to supply the needed hint, he was glad to fall back upon the suggestions of friends or correspondents. He made a practice of jotting down upon his coat anything that he overheard or was told. "As almost every one thinks he has something more or less funny to tell me as soon as we meet, you may imagine," said he, "the state of my coat after a day's outing. The coats are carefully copied out by my wife before they are sent to the laundry." Some of the jokes thus offered to him, however, proved more perplexing than useful. For instance, a Frenchman once ran up to him crying excitedly:

"Here is a joke for you, Mr. Phil May. It will do splendidly well for your paper. Why was a mice when he was weaving a spider's web? You do not know, eh? You give me up? I will tell you. Because the more you lick him the faster!"

Not wishing to wound the Frenchman's feelings, Phil May jotted the joke down upon his coat and afterward gravely asserted that he had spent many days and nights trying to unravel the mystery.

PASSAVANT HOSPITAL TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES.

The year for the Passavant Hospital training school for nurses begins Oct. 1. The course requires two years of study and training after two months probation (1 a 26 months) in order to get a diploma. It is an advantage for applicants to have had the two months probation before the classes open the first of October.

The qualifications demanded by the hospital management for an applicant to the training school are: First, good character; second, good hometraining; third, a school training that is at least equal to that required for entrance to a high school; fourth, the applicant must be at least 20 years old and not over 35 years of age.

The first two qualifications are demanded because nursing is a high and noble calling and requires the best endeavors of a true hearted Christian, possessed of the patience of Job and the wisdom of Solomon. Competent trained nurses from Passavant hospital in Chicago will have charge of the training school; besides instruction in ordinary nursing there will be special courses given in operative work, cooking for invalids and massage. Last winter a number of the physicians in the city gave the nurses lectures and they will continue to do so the coming winter.

For further information call or write to Passavant hospital, Jacksonville, Ill.—(Morgan county exchanges please copy.)

DYSENTERY CURED WITHOUT THE AID OF A DOCTOR.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery), says Mr. T. A. Finner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by all druggists.

HAY FEVER SEASON

Many Seek Northern Resorts Because of This Ailment—Number Increasing.

And now comes the period of the great hay fever exodus. This disease so imperfectly named has grown both in America and abroad with an alarming rapidity with the increasing exigencies of modern life in the cities which puts a greater nervous strain upon the individual worker until now from end to end of the American continent sufferers are so ordering their affairs that they can escape for at least three or four weeks during the height of the hay fever season to spots which render them immune.

This affliction has been from the beginning the butt of so many ill-advised humorous shafts from persons not themselves affected that it is only within comparatively recent years that a serious attempt has been made on the part of the medical profession to arrive at any scientific knowledge regarding it.

It was loosely known that the direct exciting cause of the blood shot eye and the tingling nostril is the pollen of certain plants which fly most profusely about the 15th of August. Yet it was not absolutely known for years by ordinary practitioners of medicine that the irritation is not due to mechanical irritation, but rather is the result of poisoning, certain patients being susceptible to certain kinds of pollen.

There are several clearly marked and differentiated kinds of hay fever, the most broadly noted divisions being those of nasal hay fever and those cases showing asthmatic complications, the nasal type being further separated into "paroxysmal coryza," a susceptibility to irritation at any and all times and "periodic coryza," which occurs only during the hay fever season proper.

In many cities of importance throughout the United States the members of the health department are devoting most of their energies at this time to devising practicable means for alleviating the suffering of those who are obliged to pass the whole summer in crowded centers where their condition is rendered far more acute. The physicians of Cook county have been at work on the problem for some time, though it is not reported so far that any certain specific has been hit upon. Such treatment as has so far been administered has been chiefly designed to better the general nervous tone of the patient, hay fever being admittedly traced in many cases to an acute and prolonged nervous state arising from overwork or from worry.

Many regular sufferers have taken a sort of illusory hope this season from the fact that the symptoms met with at this time are absent. But this is due, the initiated state to the fact that the season has been so far cold and backward and that the pollen of the various plants has not as yet attained maturity. It is a case of sufferings deferred rather than permanently banished, and those whom years of successive visitations have warned are now leaving in train loads for the northern resorts, there to pass the remainder of the heated term.

THE MATRIMONIAL RECORD.

MISKELL-DALTON.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dalton recently nearly one hundred guests were present to witness the marriage of Miss Clara F. Dalton to Mr. William F. Miskell, both of Nortonville. At the appointed hour Miss Della Newby presided at the organ and played the strains from Lohengrin's bridal chorus. The bridal party marched into the beautiful decorated parlor and stood under a large bell, which swung from the handsomely decorated arch, where "Squire" Isaiah Whitlock pronounced the ceremony which united the couple for life. The bride was attended by Miss Mabel Estes, of Mt. Sterling, and the groom by Carlton Dalton, brother of the bride.

The bride was attired in pure white and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was attired in white and pink. After the congratulations were extended the guests repaired to one of the most beautifully decorated dining rooms that eyes could wish to behold. The work was done under the management of Mrs. Clarence Dalton. Refreshments were served in abundance. The couple are both highly respected by all who know them. The bride, who is a lady of talent and education, graduated from the Western Normal college in 1899, and for several years has taught school in Morgan county. The groom is a farmer highly respected by all who know him. The couple will go to housekeeping immediately on a farm six miles west of Nortonville. Many beautiful and useful presents were received and the young people have the congratulations of a host of friends.

SWANDER-FOSTER.

A beautiful home wedding occurred last evening when Mrs. Francis D. Foster, of this city, was united in marriage to Mr. John H. Swander, of Terre Haute, Ind., at the home of Mrs. John Angel on Webster avenue. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only about twenty neighbors and near friends of the bride being present. The guests assembled in the parlor, and promptly at 8 o'clock the bride and groom entered, unattended, and took their places beneath a bower of green foliage, and Rev. A. L. T. Ewert pronounced the impressive words which made them man and wife.

The bride was attired in an attractive gown of silk tissue, with a voke of duchess lace. She carried bride's roses.

After the hearty and sincere congratulations of the guests had been extended, all proceeded to the dining room, where a dainty wedding supper was served, Miss Irene Black and Master Cuyler Buker acting as waiters.

The house had been artistically decorated by Mesdames Schermerhorn and Pratt, and presented a very beautiful appearance. The parlor was in white and green, the sitting room in red and green, and the dining room in green and pink.

A great number of valuable and beautiful presents were received by the bride and groom as remembrances of their many friends in this city. Among them were a handsome silver set, some beautiful pieces of cut glass and several pieces of fine furniture.

The bride has lived in this city all her life and has by her charming, frank manner endeared herself to hosts of friends, who, while rejoicing in her happiness and wishing her a continuance of the same in her new home, will much regret to see her depart. The groom is the proprietor of a large dry goods establishment in Terre Haute, and though still a young man is recognized as one of the substantial business men of the city.

The newly-married couple left this morning for their new home, where they will at once go to housekeeping.

SWANDER-FOSTER.

At the home of Mrs. John Angel on Sandusky street Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the marriage of Mr. J. H. Swander, of Terre Haute, and Mrs. Fannie Foster, of this city, was solemnized. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few of the immediate friends of the contracting parties and the solemn service was read by Rev. A. L. T. Ewert, of Centenary church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John Angel and is a lady of attractive manner and a pleasing personality. The groom is a dry goods merchant and is prominently known in business and social circles in his home city. Mr. and Mrs. Swander left Wednesday evening for Terre Haute.

HICKS-JOHNSON.

John H. Hicks and Miss Clara Johnson were united in marriage yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. O. C. Baker at his residence on Webster avenue.

Both the contracting parties are from Tennessee and will reside on a farm near Orlan.

Odd Smuggling.
Recently a book containing some very uncomplimentary allusions to King Leopold of Belgium was published in Paris, and as a result the publishers were promptly notified that no copies would be allowed to enter Belgium. There were, however, several persons in Brussels and other parts of Belgium who desired to read the book, and in spite of the official notice they managed to get copies of it. The method which they used was very simple.

The books were removed from the original covers in Paris and placed in other covers bearing such titles as "How to Grow Beet Root," "Popular Textbook on Horticulture" and "The Farmer's Every Day Book." In this disguise they were shipped to the frontier, and the officials, misled by the innocent titles, never dreamed of confiscating them.

HISTORY OF THE AMERICA'S CUP

Famous Sea Duels for the Trophy by Ashbury, Dunraven and Lipton.

The America's cup, often termed the "blue ribbon of the sea," is the oldest and best known yachting trophy in the world. It represents the racing supremacy of the two greatest nations of mariners, therefore why should not immense fortunes be spent in determining its possessor? The history of this cup is the history of the development of the world's swiftest sailing vessels, and since 1851 when the schooner America, owned by Commodore Stevens, of the New York Yacht club, plucked the trophy from the grasp of the British tars, it has come more and more to be desired by transatlantic sailors. The first craft to lift the America's cup from these shores will achieve a feat that will cause her name and that of her owner to be famed for ages to come, and this reward is sufficient to lead foreign sportsmen into taking all kinds of chances to win it.

The America's cup was originally offered for competition by the Royal Yacht squadron of England and not by the late Queen Victoria, as many people have supposed. The queen offered a cup for yacht racing shortly after the America defeated the English yachts, but the American schooner was not an official starter in the second contest. She participated in the race, however, by starting an hour after the English yachts got away, in an endeavor to overhaul them. She finished within a few minutes of the winner and would have won the race by a wide margin had she started at the official time.

THE AMERICA'S CAREER.
The first winner of the cup had a most eventful career and one that would seem to make impossible her being afloat to day in a thoroughly sea-worthy condition. After capturing the cup and winning other races in British waters, the America was sold to English parties and passed into the possession of various owners. Finally she was taken on a cruise in Mediterranean and West Indian waters and afterward used as a blockade runner during the civil war.

A gunboat pursued the America off the Florida coast. To avoid capture her captain ran her into the mouth of the St. John's river and sank her. After the war she was raised, mainly because she was a menace to navigation. Being found to have suffered little by her immersion, she was taken to Annapolis and equipped as a training vessel for naval cadets. Years later she was bought at public auction by Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, who fitted her up as a pleasure craft.

SHE DEFEATED THE CAMBRIA.
General Butler won several races with the America. In 1870 she defeated the Cambria, owned and operated by James Ashbury, of the Royal Thames Yacht club. This race was the first of the series. The Magic (American) also sailed in this race and was first to finish. America also won over Cambria by finishing second to Magic.

SEVEN RACES FOR LIVONIA.
A series of seven races was finally arranged for Livonia, the Americans reserving the right to name a different craft for every race if they so desired. The schooner Columbia defeated Livonia in the first two races. Livonia won the third through accident to Columbia, and the splendid schooner Sappho, picked to sail against the challenger when Columbia was disabled, won the fourth and fifth contests handsly. Ashbury protested three of the races on technicalities, but his claims were found groundless.

CANADA'S CHALLENGER.
In 1876 Canada made an attempt to win the cup, sending the Countess of Dufferin, an imitation of the American schooner. Two races were sailed, the schooner Madeleine winning both by wide margins. The America started five minutes after the first race began and beat the Countess of Dufferin home. It was a most interesting race.

THE PURITAN AND GENESTA.
The Puritan and the Genesta sailed two complete races, both of which were won by the American boat. Several starts were made on various other days, but the light winds prevailing prevented the sloops from covering the course.

The Mayflower defended the cup in 1885. She was a new boat designed by Burgess, and in the trials defeated Atlantic, also a new craft; the Puritan and the Priscilla. She sailed against the Galatea, owned by Lieutenant-enn of London. Mayflower won two races easily.

VOLUNTEER AND THE THISTLE.
In 1887 were held the noted Volunteer and Thistle races. The Thistle was owned by James Bell of the Royal Clyde Yacht club. She was opposed by the Burgess craft Volunteer, which was financed by General Palmer of Boston. The latter was the first iron craft to take part in a cup race. The Thistle was beaten in both races.

Lord Dunraven made his entry into American's cup racing affairs in 1893. He challenged with Valkyrie II, and, Burgess, now being dead, the Herreshoffs of Bristol, who had risen to take his place in the marine world, were commissioned by the Morgan-Iselin syndicate to build Vigilant. Vigilant defeated the Colonia, the Pilgrim and the Jubilee, all built to meet Valkyrie II, and in the cup contest was victorious over the challenger. Three races were sailed in that year: In the last race the British boat was beaten by only forty seconds.

Two years later Dunraven again came over, this time with Valkyrie III. The Defender was built to meet her and after the American boat had won the first race Dunraven made the sensational charges that disgraced him in the eyes of the yachting world. He claimed that the Defender had been given more ballast after her official measurement and that consequently she was drawing more water and had a longer water line than the records showed.

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS.
Miss Nellie Groszitz entertained a number of friends at her home on Wolcott street Tuesday evening. Various games were played and the evening was very enjoyably spent. Refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Lillie Dolan, Nora Bartar, Katie Miller, Rose Nunes, Anna Sutton Bertha Harrison, Cora Harrison, Springfield; Messrs. Ed Haley, Andrew McNamara, Sam Evans. Music was furnished by a mandolin club, consisting of Walter Schildman, Elmer Bartar, Will Schildman and Vinie Vieira.

Big Reductions on Good Shoes

When we say GOOD SHOES, we mean every word of it. After years of experience with men's shoes, we have come to the conclusion that the Stacy-Adams shoe is the best $5.00 shoe on the market. They are up-to-date, styles change with the season; made in all leathers and bear the union label. If you can save $1 or even 50c on such a shoe it is a good investment. We can do this for you. We are selling all Stacy-Adams shoes for $4.00 and $4.50.
